

New CWA Living Compass Wellness Training

Devoted to Serving Families, Parents, and Teens

A new Living Compass training, especially designed for churches, schools, and others whose desire is to further promote wellness for families, parents and teens is being offered this summer. Attendees will be introduced more fully to The Teen Compass Notebook, our new resource, The Parent Wellness Compass, and will be trained in how to lead Parent Wellness Circles. They will also participate in brainstorming sessions devoted to coming up with practical, supportive, and meaningful offerings for these important and members of our communities.

5 PM June 29 - 3 PM July 1, 2017

Everything will all take place at the Nicholas Center located at 65 E. Huron in Chicago.

$300 includes lodging, meals, and materials.

Scholarships are available.

For more information or to register:
Email Edith Lipscomb at edith@livingcompass.org